CUSTOMER ACKNOWLEDGEMENT, PRIVACY DISCLOSURE AND CONSENT

You should check carefully that the information provided is accurate and up to date and doesn't leave out any material details which may impact your ability to meet the repayment requirements in the credit contract for which you may intend to apply. This includes any foreseeable changes to your circumstances that may otherwise impact on your ability to meet your potential contractual obligations with us.

Smartfinn Credit Representatives are appointed under Smartfinn Advisors Pty Ltd Australian Credit Licence No: 543 697

We represent lenders and have obligations to them, in particular not to provide any information we know is misleading or deceptive. We also have obligations under the law to report any fraud, forgery, or other illegal activities. By signing this acknowledgement, you confirm that you understand that we have these obligations to the lender and under the law. If you have any questions about our role, please ask before you sign.

We do not provide legal or financial advice unless specified in a separate contract. Accordingly, it is important you ensure you understand your legal obligations under any loan you intend to enter with us, and the financial consequences. If you have any doubts, you should obtain independent legal and financial advice before you enter such a contract.

We do not determine or recommend the conditions of the credit contract (such as interest rates, fees, or the term of the loan).

Privacy Disclosure and Consent

Smartfinn Advisors Pty Ltd ATF Smartfinn Trust as Smartfinn ('we', 'us', 'our') is collecting personal and financial information about you. The privacy of your personal information is important to us. Our Privacy Policy governs how we collect, handle, use and disclose your personal information. It also deals with how you can access the personal information we hold about you, ask us to correct it, or make a privacy related complaint. This policy explains how we respect your right to privacy in accordance with the Australian Privacy Principles contained in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth).

What information do we collect and how do we use it?

We collect this personal information when we do business with you. When we request your personal information, we will identify which information is necessary and which information may be provided at your option. If you choose not to supply any of the information we request, our ability to assist you may be limited.

We will use your personal information:

- to conduct our business;
- to manage our business relationships with you and with others, including our Panel Lenders;
- to complete a transaction on your behalf, e.g. processing of application forms;
- to provide you with information about our products and services;
- for our internal administrative, marketing, planning, product development and research requirements.

From time to time, we will use your contact details to send you direct marketing communications including offers, updates and newsletters that are relevant to the services we provide. We may do so by mail or electronically unless you tell us that you do not wish to receive electronic communications. We always give you the option of electing not to receive these communications in the future. You can unsubscribe by notifying us and we will no longer send this information to you.

How do we hold and protect your information?

We strive to maintain the relevance, accuracy, completeness and currency of the personal information we hold and to protect its privacy and security. We keep personal information only for as long as is reasonably necessary for the purpose for which it was collected or to comply with any applicable legal or ethical reporting or document retention requirements. We hold the information we collect from you on our secure database. In some cases, your file is archived and sent to an external data storage provider for a period of time. We only use storage providers located in Australia who are also regulated by the Privacy Act. We take all reasonable steps to protect your personal information from misuse, interference, loss, unauthorised access, modification or exposure. All Smartfinn staff are required by the terms of their employment or contract to maintain the confidentiality of customer information. Access to your information is restricted to those employees whose job requires that information. Access to our premises and computer systems is restricted through locks, password protection, internet firewalls and routers. We will take reasonable steps to destroy or de-identify your personal information when your personal information is no longer required for our business functions.

Will we disclose the information we collect to anyone?

We do not sell, trade or rent client lists or personal information to any third party. We will disclose personal information about you to our lenders and agents where necessary to do so for the ordinary operation of our business. We may also disclose your personal information to our administration centre, for the purpose of processing and managing your application. In all cases we will only disclose that information that is strictly required, and take all reasonable steps to ensure that your personal information is handled in accordance with the Australian Privacy Principles. These third parties are strictly prohibited from using your personal information for any purpose other than in the pursuit of business related to us. Otherwise, we will not disclose personal information unless you consent, we are required to do so by law or under some unusual other circumstances which the Privacy Act permits.

How can you access, update or correct the information we are holding?

You have the right to access your information and if necessary, for it to be corrected. Upon receipt of your written request and enough information to allow us to identify the information, we will disclose to you the personal information we hold about you. We may incur costs in giving you that information, in which case we reserve the right to charge you for our reasonable expenses incurred in doing so. If you believe that we are holding inaccurate, incomplete, irrelevant or out of date data about you, you may ask us to correct it. You can make a request for access to or correction of your personal information by contacting on 1300 305 101. In some limited circumstances we may need to refuse access to your information or refuse a request for correction. If this is the case, we will advise you as soon as possible after your request and provide you with our reasons for the refusal.
